

Bachelor of Biblical Studies (B.B.S.)

Designed for students who have earned some college credit at other institutions or those who have earned a previous associate or bachelor degree, this program combines the requirements of the Associate of Biblical Studies program with additional General Studies requirements.

Total of 120 credits required // Cumulative GPA of 2.0

Minimum of 25% (30 credits) directly through CCBC (balance may be transferred from other institutions).

Program Learning Outcomes:

1. Exhibit knowledge of the Bible, theology, and the essence of the gospel by interpreting, applying, and communicating Scripture in ways that strengthen relationship with God (ILOs 1 and 2).
2. Apply biblical insight and Christ-like values to various aspects of Christian practice, work, human relationships, and ministry as a foundation for life (ILOs 2 and 3).
3. Articulate knowledge of the major domains of general studies in light of a biblical worldview (ILO 2).
