CCBC LEARNING OUTCOMES 2019-2020 PROGRAM REVIEW

PLO 1: BIBLICAL & THEOLOGICAL KNOWLEDGE

"Exhibit knowledge of the Bible, theology, and the essence of the gospel by interpreting, applying, and communicating Scripture in ways that strengthen relationship with God" (ILOs 1 and 2).

MEASURES EVALUATED FOR PLO 1

- Four validated, publisher-issued comprehensive exams from the textbooks Encountering the OT/NT.
- administered to both incoming and graduating students
- Weekly Bible content summaries (NT/OT Survey courses)
- Group Bible Study Leadership Rubric (BSM first-year course)

CCBC Bible Survey Courses, which were created from the course

• As a second measure of Bible knowledge, the ABHE Bible Exam is

FINDINGS

- The median score for 1st term (OT301) students is now above the passing
- the median score.
- Scores of the Fall 2018 incoming class have been lower than others in each
- Based on ABHE exam results, CCBC incoming students ranked below threshold (70.9%). It was slightly below passing in the previous two terms.

• Graduating students' scores improved by 10 percentage points, to a 97% for

of the terms, which may be an effect of more aggressive recruitment efforts introduced at that time that did not focus on academic preparedness.

national norms in most categories, while CCBC graduates ranked above national norms in all categories except Gospels/Life of Christ and Nt People.

ACTION STEPS

- Continue reminding students about the value of re-reading the textbook and reviewing their quizzes to prepare for the exams.
- expected (for the Fall 2018 incoming class).
- Ensure that the Marketing and Admissions team are upholding academic according to the new policy and procedure adopted by the faculty.
- Continue including Survey course scores as a basis for early intervention and personalized student support through Learning Lab.

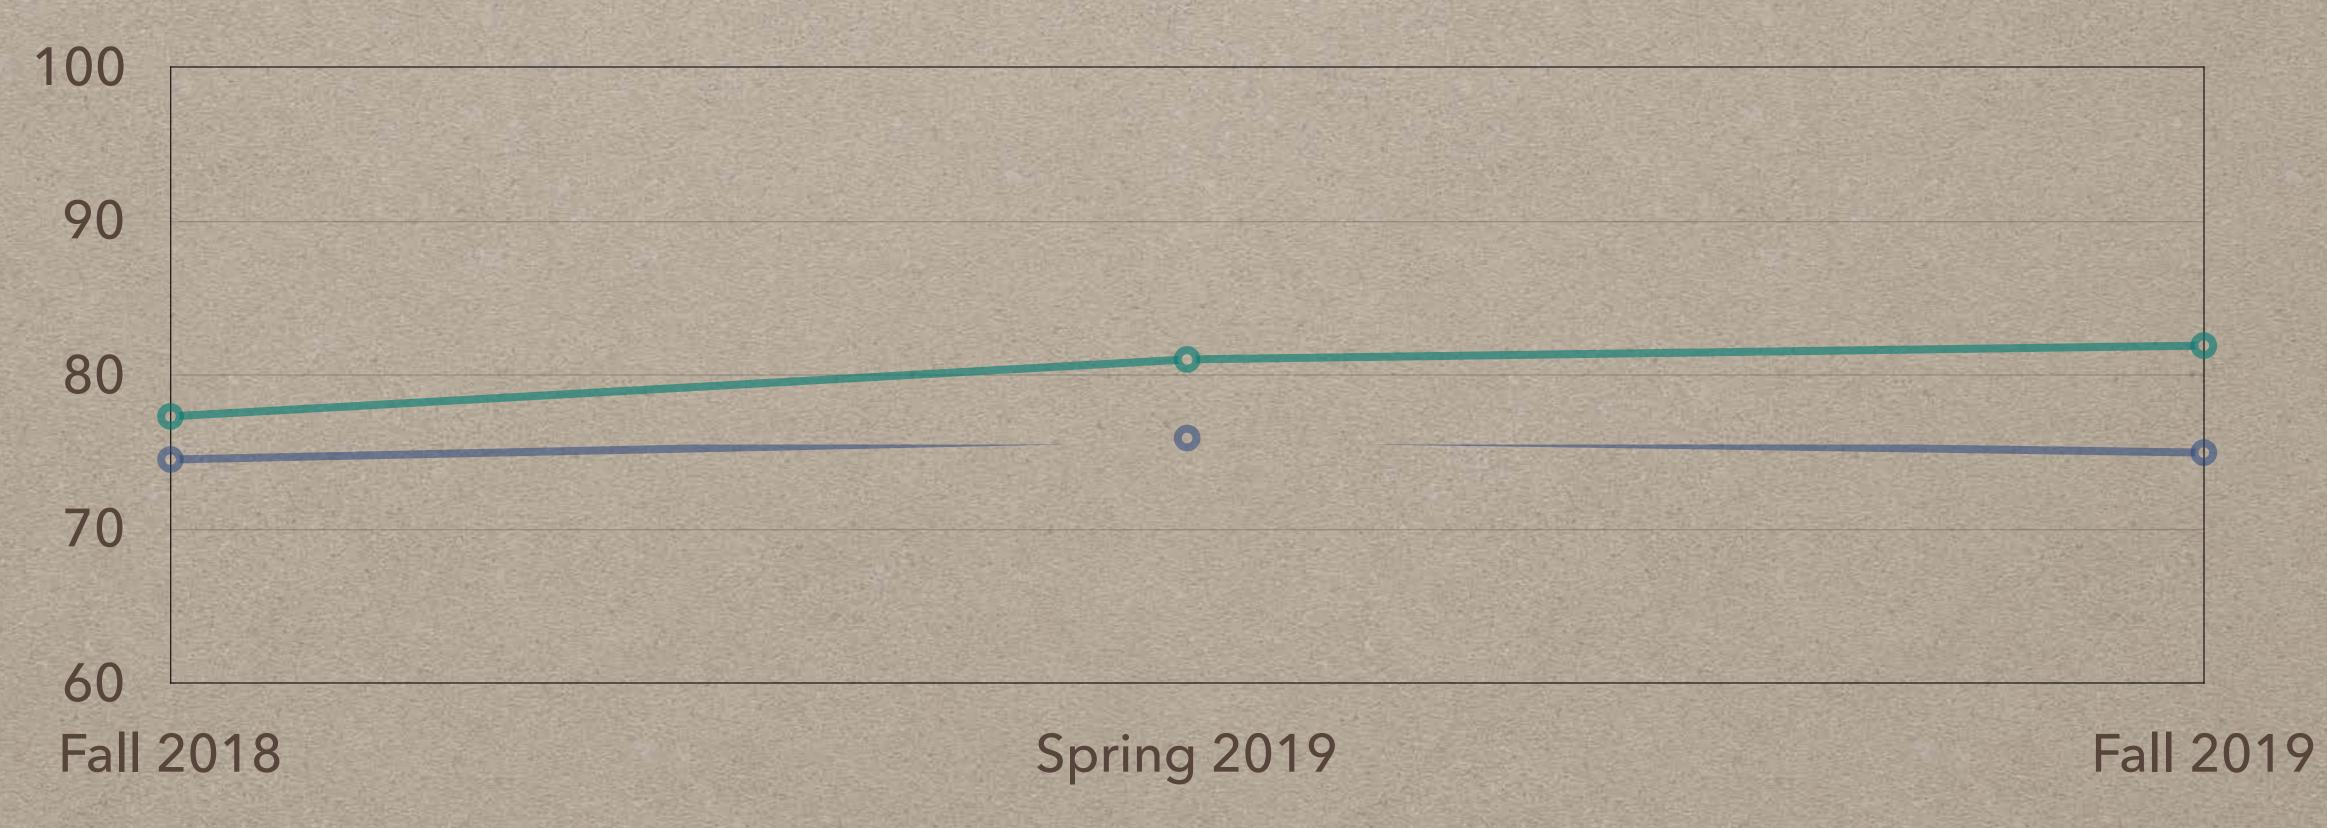

• Analyze next semester's graduating class scores, to see if media scores drop as preparedness standards for admission, and properly identifying at-risk students

• Strengthen the curriculum in the areas of Gospels/Life of Christ and NT People.
